CLASS HISTORY

Looking through the records of the Educational journeys of the senior class through the years we have found one record in which we are especially interested. Let us tell you of this journey which started in 1939.

Our plane glided in on the 4th day of September '39. Our airline hostesses were Miss Jenny Lee Wilson and Mrs. Mary Huffman. With much patience and informality, the 60 of us were registered and brought aboard the "Drexel School" to start our travel of education. Our air-mail message is to those who piloted us for eight years—"Thanks for making our lives more fruitful, pleasant, and happier."

After eight short trips we graduated to a bigger and better plane, called Drexel High School piloted by Mr. Harry L. Hallyburton and his crew: Mrs. Stover, Mrs. Russell, Miss McNeely, Mrs. Dellinger, Miss Pyatt, and Miss Miller. During this trip the Drexel High School Band was reorganized under the direction of Mrs. Dellinger.

At the end of this first trip 3 had bailed out and one of the crew, Miss McNeely, was transferred to a bigger plane at High Point. We gained a new passenger from Valdese, Betty June Queen, and a new crew member, Mr. R. L. Patton.

After losing Mrs. Dellinger and gaining Miss Silvers, Mr. Teems, Mr. Abernathy and Mr. Smyre, we started off with a full crew on our eleventh flight. Our trip proved to be one of the most enjoyable rides we had taken. We presented a play entitled "Moon-Shy." Going through Hawaii we stopped and gave the seniors aboard a banquet which proved to be most successful. During this trip, we also stopped at Asheville for our band to enter a district contest. It gave an excellent concert.

Mr. Hallyburton landed us for our last refueling and new passengers, Joe Carswell and Ernest Shell, came aboard to make our total 51. This trip started off very successfully as seven of our senior members aided Drexel High School in winning the Six-Man State Championship in football. Eight of our seniors made the basketball team to add more joy to this last year.

The flight scheduled for the spring semester sounds interesting. We'll make a long stop in Washington, D. C., we hope. We also hope we don't lose any members when we visit the zoo. Two Senior plays will mean two more stops. Then of course, where the Juniors will take us when they decide to give us the annual feast is still a mystery, but it all sounds exciting. Spring always brings softball and baseball, two more activities that make school worthwhile.

Our plane will soon glide in for new passengers and we will be getting off ready to face the world alone. It is with a grateful heart we say thank-you to our pilot and his crew, and adieu to Drexel High School—Keep-em flying!

DID YOU KNOW THAT . . .

—The Six-Man Champions consisted of seven seniors.

—Kat is the only one who has successfully caught a senior boy-friend.

—The Big Newspaper was written by the little but mighty, Nell Shull.

—Murline often rides in a taxi.

—Guy and Donald like to go dear hunting!

—Jerry kept his fist balled up so long, it became a habit

—watch out Norma.

—Joe Carswell doesn't seem to have any rhythm at all.

—Bonnie can really chauffeur that Chevie—How about it, Jane?

—Lib likes to play ball—also likes Yankee Ballplayers.

—Ralph Anthony hangs around school most of the time

—Usually no further than Valdese or Morganton.

—Gay Avis has a good educational influence—How about your grades J. B.?

—Betty Lou knows all those movie stars—just look at her billfold.

—Geraldine and Shelton are brother and sister—and both redheaded—However, they are different in a FEW ways, says Shelton.

—It isn't school Jimmy and Garland object to; it's the principle of the thing.

—John Henry and Ned have good looking limousines. Not so fast, girls.

—It's unusual to see a diamond around, isn't it Mildred, Clara, Edna Jean, Dot, Wanda, Barbara?!!—Well we could name on——Gerald McNeely's favorite tune is "there's a long, long trail a winding"—To High Peak.

—Carol's hope chest is just full of Hope—Keep your gloves on Shorty!

—Muriel and Betty are always playing—either with babies or Mr. Patton.

—Ralph Isenhour has a good ear for listening—ask Ralph Ab——.

—Margaret often lets that Rich-ie boy take her to the Drive-In. Usually every Tuesday night.

—Joe Deans' last name is Bard rather than Beard.

—The windy city (Chicago) has blown a familiar breeze back to Drexel; he breezed right through Phid's door.

—The twelve o'clock whistle puts Betty Jean on her Homeward journey.

—Ernest is in earnest about Ernest.

—Minyonne rushes home from church in order to hear her number 1 program, "Bill and Beulah."

—Eva is once again getting used to speaking French instead of baby-talk.

—Lamonte's Jeep tires are geting worn slick. Could it be those trips on the River-Road?

—Gloria doesn't study all the time—she just pretends to.

—Jean has a gift of gab—that's why she's a telephone operator.

—Ted decided that all play and no work makes a boy very dull.

—Garmon and Darby have resolved to stick with their blonds!

—Ernestine used some of her energy in the Dime Store. The other dime's worth is used in "rooting for those Wolverines."

—Dot Stamey and Lula Mae are really a team—they're always pulling together.

—Bill Buff doesn't have a toni! He's just been riding in his convertible with the top down. Results—curls and girls.

—Benny's by-line is "Be an individualist."

—Betty June is familiar with the past tense of the verb to be, (Been).

—Bill Berry took an umbrella to Church one hot Sunday. Why?? He heard the preacher was going to preach up a storm.

—Leta Faye studies the three R's. Could it be that a certain boy's name is R. R. R.??

—The Seniors won't admit it, but they have a slight yearning to stay at Drexel High. They have so much talent they will probably be asked to stay.

CLASS PROPHECY

While attending the Catawba County Fair, we decided to have our fortunes told by Madame Zolga. Once inside we got a better idea. We would have her tell the future of our class of '51, 10 years from now. Now we shall give the strange and surprising tale as it was given to us.

Carol Bryant and Bill Berry, two of the nation's foremost painters, are making a tour of Europe, visiting some of the famous art galleries where their paintings are on exhibition.

Kat McNeely, home for a vacation from teaching at U.N.C. told us that she has deserted her classroom to go see Donald McNeely play pro-football for the Washington Redskins.

Dot Butler, famous news commentator, reported that Benny Craig, famous hot-rodder, won the Indianapolis Speedway Classic yesterday, and that Jerry Jackson, Civil Engineer, has completed the nation's largest dam in midwest.

Gerald McNeely, ace left hander for the N. Y. Yankees, pitched his second no-hit, no-run game against the Boston Red Sox.

Joe Carswell, the Fred Astaire of today, just signed a new contract with Warner Brothers for the remake of "Let's Dance." His co-star is the talented Barbara Abernathy.

Bill Buff and his jiving five, featuring Guy Settlemyre with his golden trumpet, are appearing weekly on Darby Coopers television show, incidentally, this is color television finally completed by Ned Sigmon.

Senator Baird introduced a bill for new tax appropriations. His secretary, Jane Deal, helped work this out.

Garmon Farris, new owner of the New York Times, has appointed to his staff; Garland Watts, Sports Editor, Lib Branch, Society Editor, and Muriel Page, the editor of the famous column, "The World of Today."

The famous duet, Margaret Baker and Lamont Harris, are now making records for Columbia.

Nell Shull, manager of Drexel's Community Center, announced today that the State Championship Basketball Tournament will start here tonight. The coach of the favorite team, Drexel, is Ralph Isenhour.

Ted Reese led the nation in farm produce sales for '61 from his 4000 acre farm in Nebraska.

Rear Admiral Shelton Woodie and Captain Jim Bollinger are home on leave from their ship, U.S.S. Missouri.

Betty June Queen and Minyonne Sojourner are secretaries for John H. Powell, president of the Drexel Furniture Co.

Wanda Fender, a popular Power's Model, has been featured as Life's cover girl.

Phyllis Harris, Gay Avis Rector have managed to stay together through the years, equally successful in the field of Nursing.

Betty Cline has opened her new supermarket on South Main St. in Drexel.

Murline Berry and Ernestine Baker are secretaries for the well to do Philadelphia lawyer, Ernest Shell. Randel Cannon, president of American Air Lines, has added several new jets to his company.

Geraldine Woodie, home missionary is doing a fine job in the religious field.

Clara Miller was awarded for her performance in "Wonderful You."

Lula Mae and Dot Stamey are making a great hit with their radio program over C.B.S.

Jean Mull now has a position in one of Bell Telephones' offices.

Lieut. Edna Jean Hallyburton and Capt. Bonnie Griffen stated that they are having a tough time signing recruits in the Wacs.

Leta Moses and Mildred Newton are doing splendid business in their beauty shop.

Gloria Smith and Betty Stamey are proving that women still hold an important part in the world by taking Mrs. Roosevelt's place in Washington.

Betty Berry is the secretary of Ralph Anthony, a prominent business man in New York.

And so ends the surprising tale which we hope will impress our classmates, but we know they'll never believe —neither do we.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Knowing full well that we are approaching the end of our High School career, and realizing that our vast and valuable possessions may lead to bitter contention among those who aspire to be our heirs, our Last Will and Testament is hereby drawn up and stated as follows:

To Mr. Hallyburton and the faculty we leave our undying gratitude for their helpfulness, patience, and understanding during our struggle for knowledge.

To the School Board we leave our sincere thanks for their interest in our education.

To the Class of '52 we leave our dignity and superiority as Seniors.

In addition to these, we have the following individual bequeaths:

Clara Miller leaves her baton and twirling technique to Leatrice Childres.

Betty June Queen wills her dramatic ability to June Cope.

Joe Baird wills his seat in bookkeeping to any Junior crazy enough to take the stuff.

Muriel Page bequeaths her resistance to eating between meals to Julia Bumgarner and Tressie May.

Gloria Smith wills her red hair to Gladys Howard.

Betty Berry and Edna Hallyburton leave their drugstore dinners to Jean Rogers and Pauline Bennett.

Leta Moses and Lula Mae Bass bequeath their good grades to Janie Page and Louis Powell.

John Henry Powell wills his A-Model to anyone with enough strength to crank it.

Ralph Isenhour wills his ability to say the right thing at the wrong time to Bobbie Ramsey.

Wanda Fender leaves her good looks to Rachel Baird.

Gerald McNeely leaves his store of general knowledge to Stuart Cozort, urging him to use it sparingly.

Minyonne Sojourner bequeaths her quick blushes to Eleanor Franklin.

Jimmy Bollinger wills his ability to pester his teachers and classmates to Harper Harris.

Bill Buff leaves to Jimmy Aikens his convertible and all the popularity that goes with it. (Please leave Bill the girls).

Carol Bryant wills her job as "soda-jerk" and her "what for you's" to Betty Sue McGalliard. Included is some Jergens lotion for dishpan hands.

Kat McNeely leaves to her sister Dot, her talent in music.

Bonnie Griffin and Jane Deal leave their lasting friendship to any two Juniors who think they can get along that well.

Margaret Baker leaves her smooth school-girl complexion to Reba West.

Murline Berry bequeaths her "Ye-a-a, Drexel" to Martha Jo Berry.

Guy wills his position as the all-star quarterback to little "Choo-Choo" Rhoney.

Jerry Jackson wills his love for French and Mrs. Stover's classes to Grant Queen.

Ted Reece wills his surplus height to Grankie Hubbard.

Donald McNeely leaves his own special laugh, "hee, hee, ha, ha," to anyone who can imitate it.

Phyllis Harris leaves her box of popcorn to her cousin, Norma Lowdermilk, who may let her borrow it occasionally.

Lib Branch wills her excellent athletic record to Bea Childres.

Joe Carswell bequeaths his ability to shag and jitterbug to J. B. McNeely.

Gay Rector leaves her drivers manual (for Pontiacs) to Willie Parks Woody.

Darby Cooper wills his pleasant, easy-going ways to Jo Ann Tilley.

Betty Jean Stamey leaves her comb and bobby pins to Rex Baker.

To anyone who would like a few extra "A's" Shelton Woody leaves his ability to study during study hall.

Nell Shull wills her reputation as being "little but loud" to Charles Farris.

Barbara Abernathy leaves her freckles, plus her lemon juice and vanishing cream to Hazel Powell.

Geraldine Woody and Ned Sigmon bequeath their quietness to Janet Burns and Ken Ervin Deal.

Garland Watts leaves his reputation for being on time for class to Joe Saunders.

Ernest Shell wills the seat in front of him (his special prop) to Leo Bollinger.

Dot Butler leaves her pen, stationery, and stamps to Esther Grady.

Lamont Harris Leaves————Period.

Tune of "The Bells of St. Mary's"

Verse:

A Wonderful stream is the "River of Time,"
It flows through our lives with rhythm and rhyme,
It drifts through our childhood with smoothest of flow,
The years drift by—to again come and go.

Chorus:

Our time at old Drexel has glided away,
We now face our future without much delay,
With hearts full of courage
And spirits so bold,
We'll do our best to do the rest
And reach our goal.
